

FOUNDED 1953

INTERCOLLEGIATE SOCIETY OF INDIVIDUALISTS, INC.

629 PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING · PHILADELPHIA, PA. 19106 · WAlnut 5-5632
MIDWESTERN OFFICE · 833 LEMCKE BLDG. · INDIANAPOLIS, IND. 46204
WESTERN OFFICE · 821 MARKET STREET · SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF. 94103

THE PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY

Western Meeting

Saturday, April 25, 1964, Bohemian Room, Bohemian Club

624 Taylor Street, San Francisco, Calif.

Dr. Glenn Campbell and the Intercollegiate Society of Individualists have invited you to attend a preliminary meeting of the Philadelphia Society. You will be one of the group of academic people and other thought leaders from the Western United States, who have been invited to discuss some of the problems of our time, and what contribution to their solution can be made by such a group as the Philadelphia Society.

This meeting is being held as a preliminary discussion. Neither this meeting, nor either of the meetings being held at Indianapolis and Philadelphia will pass on any formal organization or statement. Such matters will be left for a national meeting proposed for mid-November.

Program:

- 9:30 a. m. Reception: Coffee
- 10:00 a. m. Discussion: *"American Foreign Policy-
The Challenge of Crisis."
Opening Remarks: Stefan Possony
Discussants: George Crocker
William McDill
- 11:30 a. m. Discussion: Philadelphia Society
Opening Remarks: Peter L. DeLuca
- 12:30 p. m. Luncheon
- 2:00 p. m. Discussion: "Some New Approaches to Economic Problems."
Opening Remarks: Virgil Salera
Discussants: Glenn Campbell
Karl Brandt
- 3:30 p. m. Coffee Break
- 4:00 p. m. Discussion: "The American Academy,
Where is it Headed?"
Opening Remarks: Russell Kirk
Discussants: Ronald McArthur
Leo de Alvarez
- 5:30 p. m. Adjournment

*The periods indicated for "discussion" will have the following format: The person listed for "opening remarks" will give a brief statement of approximately 20 minutes. This will be followed by comments from each of the discussants. The subject will then be open for general discussion. The entire format will be of an informal and flexible nature.