

THE PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY'S FALL REGIONAL MEETING
 OCTOBER 1-2, 2004
 WESTIN PHILADELPHIA HOTEL, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

Black History and Conservative Principles

Friday

4:00 - 6:00	Registration	Salon Foyer
5:15 - 6:00	Scholarship Orientation	Salon I
6:00 - 7:00	Reception	Salon Foyer
7:00 - 9:00	Dinner	Salon II & III
	Midge Decter, The Heritage Foundation, Chairman Bill Campbell, Secretary, Welcome to Philadelphia Shelby Steele, The Hoover Institution

Saturday

8:30 - 10:00	Twists and Turns in Black History Jay Parker, The Lincoln Institute, Chairman Mark G. Malvasi, Randolph-Macon College, Upheaval Apart William B. Allen, Michigan State University, Rethinking Uncle Tom: Wrong Turns in Black History Herman Belz, University of Maryland, Racial Preference and Identity Politics	Salon I
10:15 - 11:45	The Uneasy Case for Elites and Excellence Ken Masugi, The Claremont Institute, Chairman Peter W. Schramm, Ashland University, Booker T. Washington, Citizens, and the American Standard Steven D. Ealy, Liberty Fund, Inc., Agrarian Reflections on Civil Rights Lucas Morel, Washington & Lee University, The Diversity of American Individualism in Ralph Ellison	Salon I

Luncheon

12:00 - 1:30	The Uniqueness of the Civil Rights Movement Bruce P. Frohnen, Ave Maria School of Law, Chairman Wilfred McClay, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga	Georgian Room
2:00 - 3:30	Political Economy and Black History Richard W. Rahn, Discovery Institute, Chairman David M. Levy, Center for Public Choice Walter E. Williams, George Mason University	Salon I
3:30 - 4:00	Coffee Break	Salon I
4:00 - 5:30	Where Do We Go From Here? Lee H. Walker, The New Coalition, Chairman Abigail Thernstrom, The Manhattan Institute Carol M. Swain, Vanderbilt University Barbara J. Elliott, Center for Renewal Stephan Thernstrom, Harvard University	Salon I