

THE PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Arthur Kemp
President

Frank S. Meyer
First Vice President

Eliseo Vivas
Second Vice President

Don Lipsett
Secretary

Edwin J. Feulner, Jr.
Treasurer

William J. Baroody
Wm. F. Buckley, Jr.
Glenn Campbell
Richard C. Cornuelle
Peter L. DeLuca, III
M. Stanton Evans
Milton Friedman
Hugh Kenner
Henry Regnery
James W. Wiggins

You are cordially invited to attend the Society's Western Meeting

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1-2, 1967

International Hotel, 6211 W. Century Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif.

“LAW AND ORDER: CRISIS IN THE AMERICAN POLITICAL TRADITION”

Friday, December 1

2:30 — 3:30

Rose Room

Registration

3:30 — 5:30

“THE PROBLEM OF FREEDOM AND ORDER”

Dr. Karl Brandt, Prof. of Economics emeritus, Stanford Univ., Senior Research Fellow, Hoover Institution

Ronald P. McArthur, Prof. of Philosophy, St. Mary's College, California

Herbert Morris, Prof. of Law and Philosophy, Univ. of California at Los Angeles

5:30 — 6:30

Cocktail Hour — Rose Room

6:30 — 8:30

Dinner — Rose Room

“REBELS WITHOUT A COMMON CAUSE”

Arthur Kemp, Prof. of Economics, Claremont Men's College, Pres. The Philadelphia Society

Saturday, December 2

10:00 — 12:00

Blue Room

“FREEDOM AND ORDER IN THE AMERICAN POLITICAL TRADITION”

George C. S. Benson, Pres. Claremont Men's College

Harry V. Jaffa, Prof. of Politics, Claremont Men's College

John B. Rae, Prof. of History, Harvey Mudd College

12:45 — 2:00

Luncheon — Penthouse

2:30 — 5:00

“IMMEDIATE CAUSES OF THE CURRENT CRISIS”

William V. Lawlor, Former Chairman, Citizens Advisory Committee on Education to the California State Legislature; Trustee, Reading Reform Foundation

Stefan T. Possony, Director International Studies Program, Hoover Institution

Proctor Thomson, Prof. of Economics, Claremont Men's College

(Over, please)