

THE PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY

NORTH ADAMS • MICHIGAN 49262

You are cordially invited to attend the Society's National Meeting

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 15-16, 1977

SHERATON PLAZA HOTEL, 160 East Huron, off North Michigan Avenue, Chicago

"THE FUTURE OF FREEDOM: THE PROBLEMS AND THE PROSPECTS"

Friday, April 15

- 4:00 - 6:00 - Registration/Reception
- 6:00 - 8:30 - Dinner
"Will the West Survive Until 1984?"
Ephraim Sevela, Author and Film Director
- 9:00 - 10:00 ISI Alumni Association Hospitality Hour

Saturday, April 16

- 9:00 - 9:45 - Annual Breakfast Meeting of Membership (Members only)
- 10:15 - 11:45 - "The Present State of the Conservative Movement in America"
Stephen J. Tonsor, University of Michigan
William F. Campbell, Chairman
Discussants: M. Stanton Evans and George H. Nash
- 12:15 - 2:00 - Luncheon
Report on The Philadelphia Society, Henry Regnery
Robert Moss, Editor, "Foreign Report" of The Economist
- 2:15 - 3:45 - "The Communications Explosion and the Struggle for the World"
Frank J. Shakespeare, President, RKO General
Anthony Harrigan, Chairman
Discussants: William Schneider, Jr. and Leopold Tyrmand
- 4:15 - 5:45 - "The Necessity of Dogmas in Schooling"
Russell Kirk, Author and Lecturer
Ernest van den Haag, Chairman
Discussants: John Davenport and John A. Howard

(Over, please)