
The Philadelphia Society

★ ★ NORTH ADAMS ★ MICHIGAN 49262 ★ (517) 287-5814 ★ ★

TWENTY-FIRST NATIONAL MEETING - APRIL 12-13, 1985

THE DRAKE - CHICAGO

"MANY VOICES: VARIETIES OF CONSERVATIVE THOUGHT IN THE 80S"

Friday

4:00 - 5:30	Registration	FRENCH FOYER
5:30 - 6:30	Reception	WALTON ROOM
6:30 - 9:00	Dinner Daniel B. Hales, Chairman The Hon. Evan Griffith Galbraith, United States Ambassador to France "PRIORITIES AND OBSTACLES IN OUR FOREIGN AFFAIRS"	GRAND BALLROOM

Saturday

8:30 - 9:30	Annual Breakfast Meeting of Membership	FRENCH ROOM
10:00 - 11:30	"THE CONSERVATIVE COUNTERREVOLUTION" Forrest McDonald, Chairman Jeffrey Hart, Dartmouth College Otto J. Scott, Author and Consultant Jeffrey St. John, Author and Lecturer	GRAND BALLROOM
12:00 - 2:00	Luncheon Report on The Philadelphia Society M. E. Bradford, President	WALTON ROOM
2:30 - 4:00	"THE NEWER CONSERVATIVES: AN INTERNATIONAL REPORT" Ernest van den Haag, Chairman Germany - Paul Gottfried, Rockford College France - Thomas Molnar, Brooklyn College Spain - Frederick Wilhelmsen, University of Dallas	GRAND BALLROOM
4:00 - 4:30	Coffee Break
4:30 - 6:00	Ernest W. Lefever, Chairman United Kingdom - Eamonn Butler, Adam Smith Institute Central America - Philip Powell, University of California Santa Barbara Canada - Brian Tracy, The Institute for Executive Development	GRAND BALLROOM
7:00 - 9:00	Optional Dinner Sessions: "THE LIMITS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW" Sponsored by The Center for Judicial Studies	VENETIAN ROOM
7:00 - 9:00	"CAN WE PRIVATIZE WHAT GOVERNMENT DOES?" Sponsored by The Institute for Humane Studies $40 per person	PARLORS F & G

Sunday

9:30 a.m.	A Report on Canada: "CONSERVATISM IN THE MULRONEY ERA: CO-OPERATION OR CRITICISM?" Sponsored by The International Policy Forum $15 per person - advance registration ($20 at the door)	FRENCH ROOM
-----------	--	-------------