

THE PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY

NORTH ADAMS • MICHIGAN 49262

517/287-5814

You are cordially invited to attend the Society's Southern Regional Meeting;

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1976.

THE REGISTRY HOTEL, Mockingbird Lane and I-35 East, Dallas, Texas

"THE BUREAUCRACY: SERVANT OR MASTER?"

- 8:00 - 9:00 Registration - Coffee
- 9:00 - 10:30 "First, Let's Kill All The Lawyers: The SEC as an Object Lesson"
James S. Mofsky, Center for Studies in Law and Economics,
University of Miami School of Law
George W. Trivoli, Chairman
- 11:00 - 12:30 "The Process of Investing in the Bureaucracy"
Gordon Tullock, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
W.H. Hutt, Chairman
- 12:45 - 2:00 Luncheon
- 2:15 - 3:45 "Safety, Security and Statism"
Ernest van den Haag, New York University
M.E. Bradford, Chairman
- 4:15 - 5:45 "Strategies for Turning the Tide"
Howard Phillips, The Conservative Caucus
Karl Ziebarth, Chairman
- 6:00 - 7:00 Reception - Cash Bar
- 7:00 - 9:00 Dinner - David A. Williams, Chairman
- "A Recipe for Bureaucratic Disaster: The Humphrey - Hawkins Bill"
W. Philip Gramm, Texas A & M University

Note: For those arriving at the Dallas -Fort Worth airport, frequent Surtran bus service is available to the hotel; the one way fare is $4.00. Free shuttle service is available from Dallas Love Field. A block of rooms has been reserved at The Registry Hotel.

(Over, please)