

THE PHILADELPHIA SOCIETY'S 43RD NATIONAL MEETING

APRIL 27-29, 2007

LOEWS HOTEL – PHILADELPHIA

Challenges to Conservatism

Friday

4:00 - 6:00	Registration	Regency Foyer ABC
5:30 - 6:00	Scholarship Orientation	Regency C1
6:00 - 7:00	Reception	Regency Foyer ABC
7:00 - 9:00	Dinner	Regency AB

George H. Nash, Historian and Author, Chairman
Adrian Wooldridge, Author and Washington Bureau Chief of the Economist

Saturday

8:30 - 9:30	Annual Breakfast Meeting of the Membership (Members only)	Commonwealth AB
10:00 - 11:30	Science and the Future of Conservatism Robert A. Heineman, Alfred University, Chairman Larry Arnhart, Northern Illinois University John G. West, Discovery Institute James C. Peterson, McMaster University	Regency AB

Lunchcon

12:00 - 1:30	The Role of Conservative Ideas in Practical Politics Steven Hayward, Resident Scholar, American Enterprise Institute, Chairman M. Stanton Evans, Education and Research Institute	Commonwealth ABC
2:00 - 3:30	Religion and the Future of Conservatism William Murchison, Baylor University, Chairman Darryl Hart, Intercollegiate Studies Institute Robert George, Princeton University Robert Royal, Faith and Reason Institute	Regency AB
3:30 - 4:00	Coffee Break	Regency Foyer ABC
4:00 - 5:30	The Challenges of Globalisation Nicholas Capaldi, Loyola University, Chairman John Fonte, The Hudson Institute Roger Kimball, The New Criterion George Gilder, Discovery Institute	Regency AB

Sunday

8:00 - 9:00	Breakfast Buffet	Regency B
9:00 - 11:00	Roundtable Discussion - The Challenges to the Younger Generation Lee Edwards, The Heritage Foundation, Chairman Ramesh Ponnuru, National Review Christopher Coyne, Hampden-Sydney College Ryan Sager, Author Amanda Carpenter, Human Events Gerald Russello, The University Bookman	