

Founded 1964

The Philadelphia Society

★ NORTH ADAMS, MICHIGAN 49262 ★ (517) 287-5814 ★

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND THE SOCIETY'S TWENTY-FIRST NATIONAL MEETING
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 12-13, 1985

THE DRAKE HOTEL, 140 EAST WALTON STREET, CHICAGO

“MANY VOICES: VARIETIES OF CONSERVATIVE THOUGHT IN THE 80s”

Friday

4:00 - 5:30

Registration

5:30 - 6:30

Reception

6:30 - 9:00

Dinner

Daniel B. Hales, Chairman

The Hon. Evan Griffith Galbraith, United States Ambassador to France

Saturday

8:30 - 9:30

Annual Breakfast Meeting of Membership

10:00 - 11:30

“THE CONSERVATIVE COUNTERREVOLUTION”

Forrest McDonald, Chairman

Jeffrey Hart, Dartmouth College

Otto J. Scott, Author and Consultant

Jeffrey St. John, Author and Lecturer

Luncheon

12:00 - 2:00

Report on The Philadelphia Society

M. E. Bradford, President

2:30 - 4:00

“THE NEWER CONSERVATIVES: AN INTERNATIONAL REPORT”

Ernest van den Haag, Chairman

Germany — Paul Gottfried, Rockford College

France — Thomas Molnar, Brooklyn College

Spain — Frederick Wilhelmsen, University of Dallas

4:00 - 4:30

Coffee Break

4:30 - 6:00

Ernest W. Lefever, Chairman

United Kingdom — Eamonn Butler, Adam Smith Institute

Central America — Philip Powell, University of California, Santa Barbara

Canada — Brian Tracy, The Institute for Executive Development

7:00 - 9:00

Optional Dinner Sessions:

“THE LIMITS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW: SOVEREIGNTY, THE CONSTITUTION AND THE NEW WORLD ORDER”

(Sponsored by the Center for Judicial Studies)

Douglas W. Kmiec, Chairman

Roger A. Brooks and Grover Rees

Discussants: Eugene Hickok and James P. Lucier

“CAN WE PRIVATIZE WHAT GOVERNMENT DOES?”

(Sponsored by the Institute for Humane Studies)

Elizabeth Currier, Chairman

Terry Anderson, Stuart Butler, Joe M. Cobb, David Friedman, John Goodman
and Richard L. Stroup

Reservations for these dinners will be taken at the registration desk.

Price: $40 per person

(Over, please)